Club M Account insurance – here’s all the important info

This insurance policy wording document gives you the lowdown on all the Club M Account insurances. And applies while the insurance benefits are turned on with your Club M Account. You have no insurance cover when you have your insurances turned off. Just so you know, the wording in sections 2-4 comes direct from our insurance partners.

Section	Insurance	Insurance provider	Optional upgrades (Additional premiums apply – add to your cover by calling 0345 602 2369)
2	Worldwide Family Multi-Trip Travel Insurance (Excludes travel in, to, or through Cuba, Iran, Syria, North Korea, the Crimea region, or the Donetsk People’s Republic (DNR) or Luhansk People’s Republic (LNR) regions of Ukraine)	American International Group UK Limited (AIG UK)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cover for trips up to 45 or 62 days• Business cover for trips up to 21 days• Pre-existing medical condition cover
3	Breakdown Cover in the UK and Europe	Green Flag	No upgrades available
4	Mobile phone and Gadget Insurance	Assurant General Insurance Limited	No upgrades available

You can’t open the Club M Account without insurance benefits. These benefits are only available to Club M Account holders who have the insurance benefits turned on.

The monthly fee for maintaining the account is set by the insurance providers and collected by us on their behalf. If the fee changes in the future we’ll tell you two months before the changes happen. For more details, check section 12 of the Club M Account Terms. You’ll be charged this monthly fee if your insurance benefits are turned on.

If you’re not eligible for a Club M account benefit, or if you decide not to use any benefit, you won’t qualify for a reduction in the monthly fee for maintaining the account.

If you’ve turned your insurance benefits off or your account is closed (by us or you), you won’t be entitled to the insurances anymore.

The cover for you – and anyone else on the policy – will end when the Club M Account is closed or when we confirm your insurance benefits have been turned off.

If you want to turn your insurance benefits back on, we’ll go through the benefits of each insurance again and let you know if you’re eligible. Once we confirm the insurances are on, you’ll need to pay the monthly fee for maintaining the account.

Turning your insurance benefits on or off will happen within three working days (Monday to Friday, not including bank holidays). Check out virginmoney.com/club-m-customers to learn more about how to do this. There are also some handy FAQs.

The insurer’s right to cancel their insurance is explained in section 2-4.

Every now and then, please check the insurance benefits provided with your Club M Account still meet your needs. If your personal circumstances change, please get in touch. If someone who’s covered has a change to their health, you must call AIG on 01273 740 983. This is important as it could affect your travel insurance cover.

In the section ‘Everything you need to know’, unless stated otherwise, the terms “Bank”, “we”, “us” and “our” in this document mean Clydesdale Bank PLC (trading as Virgin Money).

Welcome

Hello and welcome to your travel insurance policy wording.

This travel insurance is for Virgin Money Club M Account holders who have the insurance benefits turned on. It covers trips within the United Kingdom (UK) and outside the UK, including cruises.

If you stop being eligible for this insurance at any time, you won't be able to get a discount on the monthly fee for your account.

This document tells you what your policy covers you for, as well as what isn't covered. Please read through this document carefully. It should answer any questions you have about your insurance. If you're still unsure about anything, or if something doesn't look right, please call 01273 740 981 or email virginmoneytravel@aig.com.

It's really important that you follow the terms and conditions of your policy wording – we won't be able to pay claims if you don't.

What you need to know before you go

This policy meets the needs of those who want to insure themselves and their family while travelling on holiday. Please make sure it has all the cover you need.

Medical Emergency helpline

AIG Travel provides a 24-hour emergency service 365 days a year. They'll provide help if you're ill, injured or die abroad.

You can contact them:

By phone

+44 (0) 1273 740 980

By email

uk.assistance@aig.com

If you're likely to stay at a hospital for more than 24 hours abroad, someone must contact the emergency helpline right away. They'll also need to call if your treatment is likely to cost more than £500. We may not be able to cover you if you don't, or we may have to reduce the amount we pay.

If possible, please have the following information to hand when you or anyone else contacts the emergency helpline.

- Your name and address
- Your contact number abroad
- Your Virgin Money policy number (which is the same as your bank account sort code and account number)
- Your GP's name, address and contact number

How long your trips can last

Your trips are covered for up to 31 days, and you can travel as many times as you like. If you'd like your trip to be covered for longer, please contact 01273 740 981, or email virginmoneytravel@aig.com. We can upgrade your policy so trips can be covered for up to 45 days, or 62 days. Bear in mind that extending your trip limit will cost you extra.

If your trip lasts longer than the cover limit you've paid for, your cover will end on the next day. For example, if you've paid to have trips that last for 45 days, and you decide to stay longer, we'll stop covering you on the 46th day.

Cover is also included for winter sports for up to 17 days in total each year.

When cover for your trip starts and ends

Under Section A (Cancelling your trip), your cover starts on the date you book your trip, the date the account holder opened the account or the date Virgin Money confirmed your insurance benefits were turned on whichever comes later. Cover under all other sections start when you leave your home address, or 24 hours before your trip starts, whichever is later. Your cover ends when you arrive back to your home address, or 24 hours after you return to your home country if travelling abroad, whichever is earlier. Each trip must start and end in the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands. There's no cover for one-way journeys.

We'll keep covering you if you had to stay longer on your trip for reasons outside of your control. For example, there are no flights to your home, or the country you're in closes its borders.

For any adults insured under the policy, their cover will end on their 75th birthday. For children insured under the policy, their cover will end on their 18th birthday. If anyone insured is travelling on their birthday, their cover will continue until they return to their home address or to their home country if travelling abroad. This is as long as their trip isn't longer than 31 days (or 45 or 62 days if the account holder has paid extra for an upgrade).

For alternative insurance or if we can't cover you, you may be able to get cover elsewhere. Moneyhelper has a directory of travel insurance firms who can help you find travel insurance to cover your needs:

Visit - www.moneyhelper.org.uk/travel-insurance-directory

Call - 0800 138 7777 (available Monday to Friday from 8:00am to 6:00pm except Bank Holidays)

Pre-existing medical conditions

A medical condition is 'pre-existing' if you had it when the account holder opened the bank account, requested to turn on the insurance benefits or your trip was booked.

Depending on the condition, we may be able to cover it at no extra charge. In some cases, we won't be able to cover you, or you may have to pay extra to get it covered. We call this a policy upgrade.

If you answer 'yes' to any of the following questions, please call 01273 740 983 before your trip. If you don't – and you try to make a claim for any of these conditions – you won't be covered.

In the last 12 months have you:

- a. Been referred to see a specialist, or been added to a waiting list to see one?
- b. Been referred to or visited a hospital for any tests or treatments? This includes if you're on the waiting list to visit a hospital.
- c. Seen a medical practitioner more than once for the same condition?
- d. Been prescribed two or more medications?
- e. Changed any medication you've been taking?

Have you received medical advice, treatment or medication for any of the conditions below?

- a. Heart or circulatory conditions. For example, heart failure, angina and valve disease.
- b. Cerebrovascular conditions, such as strokes or any type of aneurysms. This doesn't include having high or low blood pressure or cholesterol.
- c. Any respiratory conditions related to smoking. Respiratory conditions affect your breathing, such as emphysema or COPD.
- d. Any birth defects or genetic conditions that have resulted in a physical disability.
- e. Cancer.
- f. Organ transplants.

If you have more than one pre-existing medical condition

If you have more than one pre-existing medical condition, it might affect how we cover you. We can't cover some of your conditions and not others – it'll either be all of them or none of them. You need to call 01273 740 983 if you're diagnosed with a new condition.

If your health changes

You must call 01273 740 983 straight away if your answers to any of the questions change to 'yes', or if your health changes in any other way. This includes if anything changes between you booking the trip and travelling. If you don't, it might mean we won't pay a claim related to that illness. If we can't cover you, we might be able to accept claims under Section A: If you have to cancel your trip.

Undiagnosed and terminal conditions

We don't pay claims for anything related to treatment or advice for undiagnosed conditions or symptoms. We also don't pay claims to do with terminal illnesses that are diagnosed before going on a trip, or when the account holder's account was opened.

If we can't cover you

If we can't cover you, you may be able to get cover elsewhere. We'd like to provide details of a publicly available directory that only lists firms that provide, or arrange, travel insurance policies that cover more serious medical conditions.

Using the directory may help you find a firm who can:

- provide cover for your condition
- provide cover for your condition without specific exclusions
- provide cover for your condition at a more affordable price.

If you'd like more information, you can:

Visit – www.moneyhelper.org.uk/travel-insurance-directory

Call – 0800 138 7777 (available Monday to Friday from 8:00am to 6:00pm except Bank Holidays)

Getting medical advice

If you have any concerns about your health, it's important that you can get support when you need it. Our specialist helpline can give you medical advice while you're abroad. It can also provide a second opinion if you feel you need one.

Virtual Medical Care

This service is provided by Teladoc. It allows you to contact a GP from anywhere in the world if you'd like to discuss health concerns or get a diagnosis. You can also use this service to get a second opinion on a diagnosis you've been given. They can take a look at your case and suggest any treatments they think would help.

If you contact Virtual Medical Care, you'll need to have your bank account sort code to hand. This will be used as your reference/policy number. You can contact or use their service in the following ways:

Giving us the facts

It's important you give us complete and accurate information at all times. If you notice any information isn't right, or if your circumstances change, you should tell us straight away.

If you don't tell us the truth, or if you mislead us or exaggerate a claim, we may cancel your policy or treat it like it never existed. If we do this, we won't refund any premiums we've been paid, and we might ask you to give back any money we've paid you.

Travelling if you're under 18

Children under 18 can travel without the account holder, as long as they travel with a relative, guardian or other person who is legally responsible for them. For example, a teacher or a nanny. This doesn't include travelling with a group of friends or a partner, even if they're over 18.

Following travel advice

We won't pay claims (including assistance) resulting from you travelling or planning to travel to a country against official advice. When we say official advice, we mean that the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office has advised against 'all' or 'all but essential' travel. Please check their website (<https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice>) for more information.

Countries we don't cover

We won't cover claims for trips in, to, or through any of these countries. This includes booking a trip to one of these countries, even if you don't go.

- ✗ Cuba
- ✗ Iran
- ✗ Syria
- ✗ North Korea
- ✗ Crimea region
- ✗ The Donetsk People's Republic (DNR) and Luhansk People's Republic (LNR) regions of Ukraine

Trips in the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands

Please note we'll only cover trips within the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands if you stay in accommodation you've pre-booked for at least two nights.

If a natural disaster happens before your trip

If a natural disaster happens within the seven days before your trip, but you decide to go anyway, we'll still cover you if you need to make a claim. We just won't pay the full amount – we'll only pay 25% of the cover we normally offer. Please see 'Section O – If your trip is affected by a natural disaster' on pages 33 & 34 to see what we'll cover and how much we'll pay.

If we need to make changes to this policy

If we need to make any changes to the terms of the policy, we'll let the account holder know. Any changes we make will only apply to trips booked after we've told the account holder about them. This will usually be the date they receive our letter or email, but sometimes it might be a date after that. We'll let the account holder know when we contact them about the changes.

How to make a claim

AIG Travel handles all claims. When we say 'we', 'us', or 'our' in this section, we mean AIG Travel.

If something happens and you need to make a claim, you should tell us as soon as you can. If you don't – and we can't get the information we need – we might need to reduce the amount we pay you or decline the claim altogether.

The excess

The excess is an amount you'll need to pay towards your claim. We'll take this off the amount you're claiming for. You can check if you have to pay an excess in the Summary of Cover Limits on pages 10-12.

Medical emergencies

We understand that having a medical emergency abroad is stressful. That's why we've made it as easy as possible for you to make a claim in the following ways:

Information we need to handle your claim

You must give us any information we ask for – and pay any related costs – so we can handle your claim. For example, if you were forced to cancel your trip, we'll ask you for proof that you were unable to travel, such as a medical certificate. We may also ask you to have a medical examination if we think it's necessary, or a post-mortem if you die.

We might also ask you to send us any damaged or broken belongings or sports equipment before we pay a claim. You'll get these back if we can't pay your claim.

Please note, we don't cover anything that's insured under any other policy. This means that if you have a more specific insurance that would pay a claim, you won't be covered under this policy.

We can't carry out services if:

- ✗ What you've asked for is impossible or unrealistic
- ✗ It's illegal, or the source is illegal

Section A: If you have to cancel your trip

If you can't make an event because your vehicle breaks down or is in an accident, you might be able to claim under Section E as well.

If you make a claim under this section, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per trip. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £5,000 to cover travel, accommodation, activities and visas if you have to cancel your trip abroad for one of the reasons below.

We'll pay up to £2,000 if the trip was somewhere within the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands. This includes tickets for concerts, cinemas, theatres, theme parks.

We'll only cover you under this section if you can't get your money back elsewhere.

If you pay for all or part of your trip using a loyalty points programme, you may not be able to get your points back when you cancel. If this happens, we'll pay you in cash, and base your claim on the lowest price that's advertised.

You can check our activities list on pages 46 & 47 to see what activities we cover.

Here's a list of reasons we'll accept for cancelling your trip:

- ✓ If you, or a relative, dies or becomes seriously ill or injured. By 'relative', we mean a spouse, partner (who you are living together with), parent, sibling, child, grandparent, grandchild, step-parent, stepchild, step-sibling, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, fiancé(e) or your next of kin. This only applies if you had no reason to think it might happen when the account holder opened the account, turned on the insurance benefits or the trip was booked, whichever is later.

- ✓ The person you planned to travel with or stay with abroad dies or becomes seriously ill or injured. This only applies if you had no reason to think it might happen when the account holder opened the account or the trip was booked, whichever is later.
- ✓ You've been made redundant at a company unexpectedly, and you've worked there for at least two years. This doesn't apply if you're self-employed or if you've accepted voluntary redundancy.
- ✓ You or the person you planned to travel with has been called for jury service, or has been asked to go to court as a witness. This doesn't include expert witnesses. We'll only do this if you couldn't postpone.
- ✓ If your home is damaged by fire, storm or flood, or is burgled or vandalised, and you're told not to leave the country by the police or other authorities. We'll cover you if this happens within seven days before you plan to leave.
- ✓ If you're part of the police, fire, nursing or ambulance services, and you have to stay because of an emergency. We'll also cover you if you're a member of the armed forces, and you've been posted overseas unexpectedly.
- ✓ If, after you've booked your trip, the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO) advises against 'all' or 'all but essential travel' to your planned destination. We won't cover you if the FCDO's advice is based on an epidemic or pandemic.
- ✓ If you'd be more than 26 weeks pregnant at the start of or during your trip. This only applies if you became pregnant after the account holder opened their account, turned on the insurance benefits or after the trip was booked. You can also cancel if a registered doctor who's unrelated to you has advised you not to travel because of complications with your pregnancy.

For trips in the UK, Isle of Man and Channel Islands only:

- ✓ We'll cover the cost of prepaid event tickets if your vehicle is involved in an accident or breaks down on the way there and is left unusable. This includes tickets for concerts, cinemas, theatres, theme parks, and tourist attractions. We'll only pay the amount you spent on the ticket, even if the ticket's value goes up after you've cancelled. We'll do this as long as the accident happened on the day of the event or within seven days before.
- ✓ You must have proof that a recognised breakdown organisation or VAT registered garage made your repairs.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims for any of the following:

- ✗ If you knew about something that was likely to lead to a claim when the account holder opened the account, turned on the insurance benefits or when you booked the trip. For example, if a relative is seriously ill.
- ✗ If you change your mind and no longer want to go on your trip for any reason other than those listed under 'What's covered'. If you have a pre-existing medical condition, and we haven't confirmed in writing that we'll cover you. Please see 'Pre-existing medical conditions' on pages 14 & 15 for more information.
- ✗ Extra costs that result from you not telling the travel company as soon as you know you have to cancel your trip.
- ✗ If you don't have a valid passport or visa.
- ✗ Any airport taxes and administration fees you paid for your flight.
- ✗ Cancellation costs if you still go to an event you were late for, as a result of your travel being delayed.
- ✗ Maintenance or timeshare costs for any property you own and were planning to stay in during your trip.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section B: If you get sick or injured during your trip

Our emergency medical assistance helpline is provided by AIG Travel. All claims under this section must be approved by them.

You can call +44 (0)1273 740 980 or email uk.assistance@aig.com. They provide a 24-hour emergency service 365 days a year. You must call this number immediately if you're likely to stay at a hospital for more than 24 hours during your trip. You must also do this if your treatment is likely to cost more than £500. We may not be able to cover you if you don't, or we may have to reduce the amount we pay.

If you make a claim under this section, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per claim. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for. You won't have to pay an excess if your medical costs were reduced because you used Medicare or a similar public healthcare system.

Section B1: If you get sick or injured outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands

What's covered

We'll pay up to £10,000,000 for emergency medical treatment if you get sick or injured during your trip – including ambulance services. This also covers the cost of bringing you home early, as long as it's medically necessary. If you've been advised to stay at your destination for treatment, we'll cover any extra room or travel costs that you'll need. We'll pay for you to travel in economy class, unless you've been told you need to travel in a higher class.

If a doctor says it's medically necessary, we'll pay for someone to travel from within the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands to stay with you. By 'doctor', we mean someone who is registered as a medical professional and is unrelated to you. We'll only do this if you're travelling alone, or if the person you're travelling with has to go home. We'll cover room and travel costs for one person, including their travel back home. Please be aware, once we've paid for one person to be with you, we won't pay for anyone else.

We understand that being kept overnight abroad at a hospital leads to extra non-medical costs such as food and toiletries. That's why we'll pay £20 for every 24-hours you stay. We'll pay up to £1,000 in total, which is up to 50 days.

Please note that if you stay overnight at a hospital, you'll need receipts for anything you want to claim for.

We'll pay up to £250 for emergency dental treatment, as long as it's for immediate pain relief.

If you didn't buy a return ticket, but your claim relates to you returning home, we'll take off the cost of your single ticket from your claim. We'll base this amount on the price of an economy class ticket listed by the airline you flew with.

If you die during your trip, we'll either pay up to £5,000 to bring your body or ashes home, or up to £2,000 for your burial or cremation abroad.

For trips in Australia or New Zealand

You must register with Medicare or a similar public healthcare system.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims for any of the following:

- ✗ Any pre-existing medical conditions we haven't agreed in writing to cover. Please see Pre-existing medical conditions on pages 14 & 15 for more information.
- ✗ Any costs relating to pregnancy or giving birth. This only applies if you're more than 26 weeks pregnant at the start of or during your trip.
- ✗ The cost of a single or private hospital room, unless it's medically necessary.
- ✗ Costs relating to finding and rescuing someone. This doesn't include transporting an injured person to a hospital.
- ✗ Cost of phone calls. This doesn't include the first call to the medical helpline.
- ✗ Costs for taxis, unless you used a taxi instead of an ambulance to take you to and from a hospital.
- ✗ Costs for food and drinks, unless they're included in your hospital bill as a result of staying overnight.
- ✗ Medical costs you have to pay because you chose to stay abroad against medical advice.
- ✗ Any medical costs you have to pay after you return home.
- ✗ If you choose to go to a private treatment when a public treatment is available. We'll only cover private care if we've agreed to do so.
- ✗ Any damage to dentures.

Section B2: If you get sick or injured within the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands

What's covered

We'll pay up to £10,000 if you get sick or injured during your trip. This includes the cost of bringing you home if a doctor tells you it's medically necessary. By 'doctor', we mean someone who is registered as a medical professional and is unrelated to you.

If a doctor tells you it's medically necessary to stay at your destination for treatment, we'll cover any extra room or travel costs that you'll need.

If a doctor says it's medically necessary, we'll pay for someone to travel from within the UK to stay with you. We'll cover room and travel costs, including their travel back home.

If you die during your trip, we'll pay up to £1,000 to bring your body or ashes home.

If you live in the Isle of Man or Channel Islands

The Isle of Man and the Channel Islands have a medical agreement with the UK, which means you may get medical treatment for free. If you can't get free treatment, we'll pay up to £10,000, as long as you were treated by the NHS. This doesn't apply if you're travelling within the same area. For example, if you live on one Channel Island, and travel to another.

What's not covered

- ✗ We won't pay claims for any pre-existing medical conditions we haven't agreed in writing to cover. Please see 'Pre-existing medical conditions' on pages 14 & 15 for more information.

You can call +44 (0)1273 740 980 or email uk.assistance@aig.com. They provide a 24-hour emergency service 365 days a year.

If you make a claim under this section, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per trip. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for.

We'll only cover you under this section if you can't get your money back elsewhere. If you pay for all or part of your trip using a loyalty points programme, you may not be able to get your points back when you cancel. If this happens, we'll pay you in cash, and base your claim on the lowest price that's advertised.

You can check our activities list on pages 46 & 47 to see what activities we cover. We'll only cover full days' worth of travel, accommodation and activities.

For example, if you've planned a seven-day trip, and you go to hospital on day one, we'll only cover you for the remaining six days.

Please note that you'll need receipts for anything you want to claim for. Here's a list of reasons we'll accept for cutting your trip short:

- ✓ If you or a relative die or becomes seriously ill or injured. By 'relative', we mean a spouse, partner (who you are living together with) parent, sibling, child, grandparent, grandchild, step-parent, stepchild, step-sibling, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, fiancé(e) or your next of kin. This only applies if you had no reason to think it might happen at the time the account holder opened the account turned the insurance benefits on or booked the trip, whichever is earlier.

What's covered

Missed departure or flight connection

We'll pay up to £1,000 for extra accommodation and travel to reach your destination if you miss your departure or flight connection. We'll do this as long as you missed it because of bad weather, or because your public transport breaks down or is involved in an accident. We'll also do this if you miss your departure or flight connection as a result of industrial action, such as a strike.

We'll also pay claims if your vehicle is involved in an accident or breaks down and you miss your departure or flight connection as a result. A breakdown doesn't include your vehicle running out of fuel, electricity, oil or water, or if you get a flat tyre or a flat battery.

If you miss your departure or flight connection because you're stuck in traffic, we'll cover you as long as it delays your journey by more than an hour. Please note that you'll need receipts for any extra accommodation or travel you pay for. If you were travelling by public transport, you must get a written report from the transport company confirming the reason for the delay.

Travel delay or flight cancellations

This cover only applies if you are delayed due to:

- Industrial action
- Bad weather
- If the public transport you were travelling on breaks down

We'll pay £20 per person for the first 12 hours you're delayed, and then £10 for each 12-hour delay. We'll pay up to £300 in total – as long as you still go on your trip.

Section F: If your belongings or luggage are lost, stolen or damaged

If you make a claim under this section, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per claim. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £1,500 if any of your belongings or luggage gets lost, stolen or is damaged during your trip. This includes items that you usually wear or carry. If this happens during a trip in the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands, the most we'll pay is £500.

We'll only pay for items that belong to you. We won't make any payments for items that are borrowed or rented.

You must carry your valuables with you in hand luggage when you travel, and never leave them unattended. When you arrive, you must keep them in a locked safe or out of sight in a locked room.

How much we'll pay

What we'll pay is based on the value of the item at the time it was lost, stolen or damaged. We'll also take into account the condition the item was in at the time. The item may be worth less due to its age.

The most we'll pay for one single item, or a pair or set of items designed to be used together, is £300. If your trip was in the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands, the most we'll pay is £100.

The most we'll pay for your valuables and electronics is £500. If your trip was in the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands, the most we'll pay is £300.

The most we'll pay for items stolen from a motor vehicle is £100 for each person insured under the policy. We'll only do this if the items were kept in a locked boot, a locked and covered luggage compartment, or a locked glove compartment. There must also be proof that someone used force to break into the vehicle.

We define valuables and electronics as:

- Antiques

We'll pay up to £50 for every 24-hour period your luggage is delayed on your outward journey on an international trip. We'll only cover essential items you buy while waiting for your luggage to arrive. The most we'll pay is £150 in total.

Please note, you must get a written report from the airline or transport company that confirms how long your luggage was delayed. You must also keep receipts for the essential items you buy.

Section H: If your money, passports or travel documents are lost or damaged

If you make a claim under this section because your money was lost or stolen, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per claim. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for. You won't have to pay an excess for anything else under this section.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £500 if your traveller's cheques or prepaid cards are lost or stolen during your trip – as long as you can't get a refund. The most we'll pay for cash carried by one person is £200. If a child under 18 is carrying the cash, we'll only pay up to £50.

When we say 'lost' money, this doesn't include any money you lose when you exchange currencies.

If your passport or other travel documents are lost, stolen or damaged during your trip, we'll pay up to £200 to replace them. This includes costs of you travelling to the local Embassy by public transport, as well as your replacement passport. Other travel documents we'll cover include travel tickets, admission tickets, and visas.

If your passport is lost or stolen, we'll pay for the amount of time that was left on your original passport. For example, if your passport is valid for ten years, but is five years old when it's lost or stolen, we'll pay half the amount you paid.

You must look after your money and passport at all times. Keep them with you, out of sight in a safe, or locked away in the place you're staying.

If your money is lost or stolen, you must provide reasonable evidence of the loss or theft. For example, a report from the police or letter from a hotel or tour operator. If it's lost, stolen or damaged by a transport company, you must request a written report from them. We may not be able to cover you if you don't.

Please note that you'll need receipts, banks statements or cash withdrawal slips for any claim you make. This is so we can confirm the money belonged to you. If you can't prove this, we won't be able to cover you.

We'll also need receipts for any extra costs of getting a replacement passport or travel documents abroad.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims for any of the following:

- ✗ If you leave your money or passports unattended at any time, unless they're in a safe or locked away in the place you're staying.
- ✗ If someone uses your card to commit fraud. This doesn't apply if your card is lost or stolen.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section I: If you're injured or disabled after an accident

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

What's covered

When we say 'accident', we mean something that's sudden and unexpected and happens external to the body. When we say external to the body, we mean a sudden event outside of your body which applies a force to it and causes an injury. It doesn't include anything that's caused by, or is a symptom of, any illness or disease or wear and tear.

We'll pay £15,000 if you lose an arm, leg, foot, or hand in an accident. This includes if you lose four fingers on one hand.

We'll pay the same amount if an accident causes you to completely lose sight in one or both your eyes. To claim for this, your sight must be permanently damaged so that your remaining vision is less than 3/60 on the Snellen Scale. This means you see at 3 feet what most people can see at 60 feet.

We'll also pay £25,000 if you become permanently disabled. The disability must happen within 12 months of the accident. When we say, 'permanently disabled', we mean your injuries are permanent and stop you from being able to do any paid work for the rest of your life.

We'll also cover you if you die within 12 months of an accident. We'll pay up to £5,000 if you're 18 to 64 years old. For any other age, the most we'll pay is £2,500.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section J: Your legal responsibility to others

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

If you make a claim because you've been delayed by an avalanche, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per claim. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for. You won't have to pay an excess for anything else under this section.

What's covered

If you're involved in an accident on your trip, you might be held legally responsible to pay damages. This is known as your legal liability. We'll cover you for money you have to pay because someone is injured in an accident, or if you damage or lose their property. We'll pay up to £2,000,000.

You must let AIG Travel know straight away if an accident happens, or if someone makes a legal claim against you. You must also give them any other information they ask for and let them handle the claim.

Don't admit or deny liability for any accident or negotiate or agree to pay for anything unless you have permission from AIG Travel in writing. If you're sent any legal documents, send them to AIG Travel straight away.

When an accident happens, you should give your name, address and details of your travel insurance to the other person involved. If you can, take pictures and videos, and get any details from anyone who saw what happened. This will help AIG Travel to handle your claim.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims relating to any of the following:

- ✗ Damage to your own property.
- ✗ Anything to do with your job or business. This includes if someone who works for you dies, is injured or becomes ill. It also includes if you lose or damage their property.

- ✗ You are owning or using any guns, weapons, aircraft, watercraft, or any vehicle run by petrol, oil, steam or electricity.
- ✗ Injury or damage caused by animals other than horses, domestic cats, and dogs.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section K: If you need to take legal action following death, illness or injury

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £50,000 for legal costs if you're injured or killed during your trip, and you want to make a claim for compensation against someone else.

We'll appoint a lawyer or other expert to represent you. You must follow any advice given to you.

You must also do your best to help us get back any costs we've paid on your behalf.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims for any of the following:

- ✗ If you make a claim more than 180 days after the incident.
- ✗ Any costs we haven't agreed to in writing.

Section L: If your transport is hijacked

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

What's covered

We'll pay £50 for every 24-hour period your aircraft, boat or ship is hijacked, up to £500. We'll only do this if the hijack lasts for more than 24 hours.

You must get written confirmation from your transport company that shows how long the hijack lasted. You'll also need to give us your tickets or confirmation receipt. We might also ask for other proof to support your claim.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section M: If there's a disaster which leaves your accommodation unfit to live in

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

If you make a claim under this section, you'll need to pay an excess of £50 per person, per trip. We'll take the excess off the amount you're claiming for.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £1,000 for alternative accommodation if you can't stay in the accommodation you've booked. This must be as a result of fire, flood, earthquake, storm, lightning, explosion, hurricane, or major outbreak of infectious disease. The alternative accommodation must be of a similar standard to the one you originally booked.

We'll only cover you if you can't get your money back elsewhere.

You'll need to provide evidence such as a letter from your accommodation or tour representative that confirms the cause and how long it lasted. We also need your proof of travel such as a confirmation receipt or flight tickets. You must also keep all receipts for the extra costs you pay.

What's not covered

✗ We won't pay claims if you're travelling against the advice of a local or national authority.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section N: If your pet needs care

This section only applies to trips outside the UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands.

What's covered

We'll pay up to £20 for every extra 24-hour period your pet has to spend in a kennel or cattery. We'll do this if your return home is delayed because you need to be hospitalised for medical treatment covered by this policy.

We'll also pay this amount if you're delayed because of poor weather, industrial action (such as a strike), or mechanical breakdown. We'll cover return journeys by air, sea, coach or train.

In both cases, the delay must be for more than 24 hours, and the most we'll pay is £200 – which is up to 10 days.

Please note that you must keep all the receipts for extra costs you pay for kennels or catteries. You must also get a written report from the transport company confirming the reason for the delay.

What's not covered

We won't pay claims for any of the following:

- ✗ Any kennel or cattery fees you have to pay as a result of being in quarantine.
- ✗ If you haven't checked in for your return journey at or before the recommended time.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

Section O: If your trip is affected by a natural disaster

By 'natural disaster', we mean a volcanic eruption, flood, tsunami, earthquake, landslide, hurricane, tornado, or wildfire.

In this section, we count travel delay as being more than 24 hours.

We may reduce the amount we pay if you go on a trip that's likely to lead to a claim in this section. If a natural disaster happened within the seven days before you left for your trip, we'll only pay 25% of the amounts in this section if you make a claim. This doesn't include cancelling your trip.

What's covered

Please note that you must keep all receipts for any extra costs you pay. We'll only cover you if you can't get your money back elsewhere, for example from your airline.

Cancelling your trip

We'll pay up to £5,000 to cover travel, accommodation and activities if you're forced to cancel your trip because of a natural disaster. We'll do this for amounts you've already paid or have agreed to pay under a contract.

You can check our activities list on pages 46 & 47 to see what activities we cover.

You can also claim for cancelling your trip if travel to your destination is delayed. We'll do this as long as you still couldn't travel after 24 hours. We'll also pay for your visas.

Your journey from home is delayed

We'll pay up to £100 if, after checking in, the outward leg of your journey is delayed by a natural disaster. This is to cover extra costs you have to pay as a result of being stranded in the first 24 hours. We'll pay for any emergency items you need and extra costs of travel, accommodation, and food and drink you have to buy.

If you couldn't check in, we may still be able to cover you depending on your situation. Contact AIG Travel to talk through your options.

We'll pay up to £200 if the outward leg of your journey is delayed, and you still decide to go on your trip. This is to cover extra transport costs to reach your planned destination.

Your international connection or journey home is delayed

We'll pay claims if your international connection or journey home is delayed by a natural disaster. We'll pay £150 for every 24 hours that you're stranded to cover travel, accommodation, food and drink, and any emergency items.

We'll cover you for up to five days – so the most we'll pay is £750.

We'll cover the cost of getting to the original departure point from your accommodation, as well as the cost of going to a different departure point. If you choose to stay in the country, we'll cover travel to different accommodation.

Getting you home

We may be able to make alternative travel arrangements for you if your return journey is delayed by a natural disaster. If we do, we'll pay up to £2,000. We'll only do this if the carrier you booked with can't get you home within 72 hours of the date you expected to arrive home.

We may also make travel arrangements if your journey home stops at multiple locations, and the onward journey is delayed. We'll either bring you straight home or rearrange your onward journey.

Make sure you check with AIG Travel before paying for your own travel rearrangements.

Extra car parking and pet care costs

You might have to pay extra car parking and pet care costs if you arrive home later than expected. If so, we'll pay up to £50 for every extra 24 hours of parking you're charged for if your journey home was delayed by a natural disaster. For kennel or cattery fees, we'll also pay up to £50 for every extra 24 hours. We'll cover you for up to five days, up to a limit of £250.

Please be aware we'll only cover you for flight delays or cancellations if you can't get your money back (or any other compensation) from the airline. Flights that are delayed by more than five hours should be refunded. Please check with your airline to see how much they'll pay you. If you want to find out more about your rights, you can visit the Civil Aviation Authority website at www.caa.co.uk/passengers/resolving-travel-problems/delays-and-cancellations.

What's not covered

✗ We won't pay claims for costs that could be avoided. For example, accommodation costs if you live near to your departure point and could have easily travelled home.

Remember to also check 'What this policy doesn't cover' on pages 41 & 42.

The amount we pay will be based on the number of complete days you didn't use.

If you were ill or injured, you must get an official letter from a registered doctor that confirms this and tells us how many days you couldn't ski. The doctor must also be unrelated to you.

Please note that you must keep any receipts for the ski pack you paid for.

If the piste is closed

This section only applies between 1 December and 15 April if you're travelling in the Northern hemisphere. If you're travelling in the Southern hemisphere, it only applies between 1 May and 30 September.

If it's lost, stolen or damaged by a transport company, you must request a written report from them. We may not be able to cover you if you don't.

You must keep receipts for any equipment you paid for – we can't pay claims if you don't.

If you need to hire equipment

You must keep receipts for any equipment you hire – we can't pay claims if you don't.

If you can't play golf

We'll cover the cost of golf equipment you've hired, along with green fees or golf lessons you've paid for but can't use. We'll do this if you can't play golf because you're ill or injured, or the documents you need are lost or stolen. We'll pay up to £75 for every 24 hours you can't play, up to a limit of £300 – as long as you can't get your money back.

We won't pay any claims if you're travelling against the advice of a doctor. This includes travelling to get medical treatment abroad.

Pandemic/Epidemic

We won't pay claims related to you self-isolating or being in quarantine. This includes Coronavirus (Covid-19), or any variations of Covid-19.

Illnesses and diseases we don't cover

There are some pre-existing medical conditions we won't cover. Unfortunately, if we can't cover you for one condition, we won't be able to cover you for any others. Please see the 'Pre-existing medical conditions' section on pages 14 & 15 for more information.

We won't pay claims, or provide any other services, relating to mental illnesses unless you have told us about it and we have agreed to provide cover. This includes post-traumatic stress disorder, anxiety or any disease of the nervous system. This only applies if you've received advice or treatment in the two years before the account holder opened their account, or the trip was booked.

We won't cover you for any claims related to a sexually transmitted disease you've been diagnosed with.

We won't pay any claims as a result of you becoming ill because you didn't get the travel vaccinations or inoculations you needed. This doesn't include Coronavirus (Covid-19) vaccinations.

Crime

We won't cover you if doing so would mean we're breaking any laws or regulations.

We won't pay any claims that result from you breaking the law or taking part in a criminal activity. For example, using illegal drugs or driving without a licence.

Harming yourself

We won't cover any self-inflicted injuries. This includes if you injure yourself while trying to take your own life. We also won't cover claims caused by you putting yourself deliberately in danger, unless you're trying to save someone's life.

We won't cover you if you damage something or hurt someone on purpose. This includes knowing something you do might result in damage or injury and doing it anyway. For example, if you ride a bike without a helmet, and get injured as a result.

How long does the cover last?

This breakdown cover is only available to you as a Club M Account holder when your insurance benefits are turned on. Should your account be closed by you or Virgin Money or the insurance benefits are turned off you'll no longer have this breakdown cover as it will end when the account is closed.

Your policy

Green Flag will provide breakdown cover in the United Kingdom and Europe (countries are listed under the Definitions section) for which cover is available with your Club M Account when the insurance benefits are turned on.

You and Green Flag may choose which law will apply to this policy. Unless both parties agree otherwise, it'll be English law. Green Flag have supplied this policy and other details to you in English and Green Flag will continue to communicate with you in English.

If you would like a Braille, large print or audio version of your documents, please let us know.

The main features

- Your policy covers your vehicle for anyone driving with your permission in the UK or Europe, or any vehicle that you're travelling in or driving, in the UK only.
- Green Flag will cover specialist equipment charges except when required following a road traffic accident.
- Green Flag can call your friends, family or colleagues to let them know you've broken down.
- If your vehicle has run out of charge, Green Flag will recover you to the nearest charging point.
- Green Flag will recover you, your passengers and your vehicle to the nearest repair centre if you put the wrong fuel in your vehicle in the UK. However, they won't cover the cost of fuel drainage and disposal or any damage to your vehicle. There is no cover if you put the wrong fuel in your vehicle outside of the UK.
- You're not covered for a breakdown caused by you or someone you've asked trying to repair your vehicle on the same journey (unless Green Flag have agreed you should).
- You're not covered if you continue to drive after Green Flag has told you about any additional faults found at the time of the breakdown and advised you not to drive, as the vehicle might be illegal or dangerous or driving could cause further damage. If you haven't fixed an additional issue that they found and told you about, you're not covered for any breakdown that happens as a result.
- Vehicles with trade plates, just bought at auction or imported aren't covered.
- If your vehicle's in an accident that would be covered by a motor insurance policy, Green Flag may be able to repair or recover it. You'll need to pay the cost but you may be able to claim it back from your insurance provider.
- Green Flag won't cover any claim where the vehicle is already at a garage or other place of repair.

Policy definitions

Wherever you see the following words throughout the Policy Wording from pages 51 to 62 they will have these meanings.

Breakdown: A situation happening in the UK or Europe, when you can't drive your vehicle because of mechanical or electrical failure; fire; theft or attempted theft; or malicious damage.

The definition of breakdown also includes flat tyres; running out of fuel; a flat battery; or losing or breaking your vehicle keys.

You can call out Green Flag if your vehicle becomes stuck in water, snow, sand or mud, or if something in your vehicle stops working that makes it illegal or dangerous to drive there and then. For example, if your windscreen wipers stop working when it's raining, or your headlamps don't work and it's dark. Otherwise, Green Flag needs you to drive to the nearest car accessories shop or garage to have the part fixed yourself.

You can't use the cover as an alternative to routine servicing, or as a way to get out of paying for repair costs.

The vehicle must be maintained in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations, such as keeping the required levels of water and oil correct.

Europe: Andorra, Austria, Balearics, Belgium, Bulgaria, Canary Isles, Channel Islands, Corsica, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Gibraltar, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Republic of Ireland, Romania, San Marino, Sardinia, Sicily, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey in Europe, plus Üsküdar.

Fuel: The material used to power a vehicle or hire car, like – but not limited to – Petrol, Diesel and Electric.

Green Flag: Green Flag, U K Insurance Limited, or anyone working on behalf of them.

Home: The Club M Account Holder's permanent place of residence in the United Kingdom.

Passenger: Any person who at the time of the breakdown is riding in the vehicle and isn't a hitchhiker.

Specialist equipment: Lifting equipment which Green Flag don't usually carry. This includes things like winches, cranes and skates.

Trip: A pre-booked journey within Europe beginning and ending in the UK.

United Kingdom (UK): England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.

Vehicle: The vehicle you tell Green Flag about when you ask for the first call out under this policy and which is owned by the Club M Account holder or is on a personal contract hire (PCH) agreement in excess of 12 months duration and in the name of the Club M Account holder, and normally kept at home. Or, any vehicle which the Club M Account holder (and the joint account holder where applicable) is driving or travelling in at the time of breakdown, provided:

- it's either a car, light van, motorhome or motorbike.
- it's privately registered in the UK.
- there aren't more people in it than the manufacturer would recommend, or more than nine altogether including the driver.
- it can't weigh more than 3.5 metric tons (3,500kg) in total, including any load being carried.
- it can't be more than 7 metres long (apart from a tow bar or coupling device), 3 metres tall, and 2.55 metres wide.
- it's been serviced, looked after and used as recommended by the manufacturer.
- it meets any legal requirements and driving laws that apply including having valid tax, insurance and a MOT. Green Flag can check these details when you ask them for help.

Green Flag will also cover any standard make of caravan or trailer that, when it breaks down, is being pulled by your vehicle. It must be connected using an ordinary 50mm towball and can't be bigger than the sizes above. When it's loaded, the caravan or trailer mustn't weigh more than the vehicle that's towing it weighs when empty.

You or your: The Club M Account holder(s) and any authorised driver.

What to do if you break down

- Pull as far off the road as far as you can.
- Switch on your hazard lights.
- Contact Green Flag as soon as you can.
- Let Green Flag know if you're on your own, in a vulnerable situation, or have got children with you.
- Put up your warning triangle if you have one unless it's not safe to do so. You could also lift your bonnet so it's easier for the mechanic to spot you when they're in the area.
- When the mechanic does arrive, make sure that they identify you by name and show you their ID.
- Wait with your vehicle or somewhere safe nearby, unless Green Flag ask you to do something else.
- Green Flag will only pay for repair or recovery costs that you've agreed with them up front, so don't pay for anything till you've spoken to Green Flag.
- Keep all receipts and invoices, too. You'll need to send them to Green Flag, along with the claim form, to settle a claim.
- If it takes specialist equipment to recover your vehicle, like cranes, winches or skates, Green Flag will pay for the cost of using that, unless it's needed after an accident that could be covered by a motor insurance claim.
- And if any of the emergency services come out to your breakdown, Green Flag won't be able to do anything with your vehicle until they say Green Flag can.
- If Green Flag do take your vehicle away, make sure you take out any valuables.

If you breakdown on a motorway

Always try to leave the carriageway at the next exit or pull into a service area, if possible.

If this isn't possible then try to go left:

- Move into the left lane.
- Pull into an emergency area or, if you can, on to a hard shoulder.
- Get as far over to the left as possible but remember to leave enough space to exit the vehicle.
- Turn your wheels to the left as you come to a stop.
- Locate an emergency phone.
- Put your hazard lights on so others are aware of your stationary vehicle. If it's dark then put your sidelights on as well.

If it's safe to exit the vehicle then always exit from the side that is furthest away from the traffic and make sure that your passengers do this as well.

If you can't get your vehicle to an emergency area, rest area, hard shoulder or place of safety, or you're unable to exit your vehicle and get to a place of safety then you should:

- Remain in your vehicle.
- Keep your seat belts on and make sure that your hazard lights are on.
- Call 999 immediately and ask for the police. You can also press your SOS button if your vehicle has one and ask for the police.

Some other points to keep in mind if you breakdown on a motorway:

- If you have a high visibility vest or jacket with you then put it on.
- Get behind the safety barrier and be aware of the traffic to ensure you can see any hazards such as debris.
- Don't stand where your vehicle would injure you if another vehicle were to collide with it.

- Don't get back into your vehicle even if the weather is bad or it's dark or cold.
- Don't attempt to repair your vehicle.
- Don't put a warning triangle up.
- Keep children and passengers under control and animals should be left in the vehicle but in an emergency can be on the verge with you so long as they are under control.

For all current information on what to do in a breakdown whilst on a motorway or other main carriageway please see the GOV.UK website.

Tell Green Flag as accurately as you can about your breakdown so you get the right service. They may be able to talk you through some simple steps to get your vehicle going again, meaning you won't have to wait for a recovery truck.

There may be times when Green Flag receives unusually high volumes of calls from customers needing their help – for example, if it snows or it's extremely cold.

During these times there could be a delay in reaching you, so to make sure customers who are in a vulnerable situation reach a safe place quickly, Green Flag will look at where you are, who you're with, what your situation is and prioritise accordingly.

Breakdown Cover in the UK

What's covered

Roadside help, Cover at Home, National Recovery & Onward Travel

Green Flag will come out and help you if your vehicle has broken down by the roadside, at your home, or in the place where you usually keep it.

If Green Flag comes out to your vehicle but can't get it going, they will take you, your vehicle and your passengers to:

- a Green Flag repairer, no matter how far away that is or if you prefer, a single destination of your choice, as long as it's 10 miles or less from where the breakdown happened; or
- if the breakdown was caused by a flat or damaged tyre, Green Flag will take you to a place of your choice within 10 miles of the breakdown so that the tyre can be repaired or replaced. If there's nowhere open because you broke down late at night or somewhere remote, this limit won't apply.

If your vehicle's been stolen and you won't get it back in a safe condition to drive the same day, as an alternative to asking us to recover it, you also have the choice of using any of the three options below.

You can also call our legal advice line on 0345 246 1689 for practical UK legal advice on motoring problems to do with the law.

So, if Green Flag can't fix your vehicle the same day following a local recovery, they can take you, your vehicle and your passengers to one single destination in the UK.

Or, you can choose one of the following:

1. Temporary Hire Car

Instead of asking Green Flag to take you to one place in the UK, you can opt for a hire car instead. If they can find one, it'll have a maximum engine size of 1.6l and you'll be able to use it for up to 48 hours while your vehicle's being fixed, up to a hire value of £100.

2. Another Way There

Another option is for you and your passengers to either continue your journey, or make your own way home, using Green Flag's choice of alternative transport. The total travel cost for your group can be up to £100.

3. Overnight Stay

If Green Flag can't fix your vehicle the same day, your third choice is for them to arrange and pay for overnight accommodation. Green Flag will put you and your passengers up in a local hotel while you wait for the repair to be done, as long as you've broken down more than 25 miles away from your home and your destination.

There's a limit of £150 per person, or £500 per breakdown, on the hotel costs that Green Flag will pay. You can include the cost of breakfast, but Green Flag won't pay for any alcohol.

If necessary, Green Flag will also pay the cost of a single standard class rail ticket for you to collect the vehicle after it's been repaired. If your vehicle is recovered locally these options are still available.

Vehicle Recovery

Green Flag may have to take you on your journey in stages. This is because of laws that limit how long each driver can work whilst recovering you.

Green Flag may choose to arrange recovery of the vehicle separately to you and your passengers – they will tell you if they are going to do this and let you know when the vehicle can be delivered.

Emergency Driver

If the driver is not able to drive due to sudden and unexpected death or illness and none of the passengers are authorised to drive, Green Flag will get you all to one destination you've chosen anywhere in the UK. Green Flag may ask to see a medical certificate or evidence. They might send out a driver, to take you where you've chosen to go.

Vehicle collection

If the repairer's closed and you ask Green Flag to take your vehicle home (as long as your home is within 10 miles of where the breakdown happened or no further than the repairer Green Flag have recommended), Green Flag can pick it up the next day – or when mutually acceptable if the next day isn't possible – and take it to the repairer.

Pass-a-message

If you've broken down, Green Flag will call anyone you want to let them know you're running late.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Labour charges at any garage Green Flag take you to.
- ✗ The cost of any parts and/or materials used.
- ✗ The cost of a spare wheel and tyre, if Green Flag can't use yours.
- ✗ The cost of a locksmith, bodyglass or tyre specialist, if Green Flag need to call one out.
- ✗ Green Flag won't recover your vehicle from a hospital, if you've been in for treatment and aren't safe to drive your vehicle when you leave.
- ✗ Any costs where you haven't contacted Green Flag as soon as the breakdown's happened.

Remember

Green Flag are here to help get you going again. They don't pay for labour charges that are incurred away from the scene of the breakdown. Once they've taken your vehicle to a garage, it's up to you to get any repairs carried out. If the repair that's been carried out by them is temporary, then you will need to get it permanently repaired as soon as possible.

Breakdown cover in Europe

What's covered

You can use the benefits in this section for as many trips as you like up to a maximum of 90 days abroad, in total, for each 12-month period from the date your cover started. This will be the date you opened your account, or you turn your insurance benefits back on.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Green Flag don't cover the cost of phone calls you might need to make or receive while you're in Europe.
- ✗ Green Flag don't cover the cost of any spare parts your vehicle might need, or of any repair work that's done at a garage.
- ✗ Green Flag don't cover any breakdown for a vehicle that you have not travelled in from the UK to Europe.

When you're travelling in Europe

- Remember your vehicle registration documents (V5C). You'll need to carry the original, as proof that you're the owner. If you're not the owner, you'll need a letter of authority from them, and a Vehicle on Hire Certificate (VE103) instead.
- Don't forget your driving licence. You'll need the original of that, too.
- If you've got a photocard, remember to take the paper counterpart as well.
- You might also need an International Driving Permit in some countries, as well as your driving license. To check whether one will be necessary please check the Government website, GOV.UK
- Take a credit card, in case you might want to use the car hire benefit. (The car hire company will need to swipe it as security.)
- In France and some other European countries, if you break down on a motorway or major road, the roadside emergency telephone will be answered by the police. They'll send a local recovery truck out to you. Most of these won't have links to U.K.

motoring organisations, so you might have to pay for help there and then. If you do, keep all the receipts, and send them to Green Flag when you get back to the UK. Green Flag will reimburse you for your recovery and roadside repair costs, but not for any spare parts.

Cover before you leave

What's covered

If you break down seven days or less before the date you're booked to leave the UK on a trip, Green Flag will pay up to £800 towards help with the things below.

- A self-drive hire car, so you can still go on your trip. This option's available if your vehicle can't be repaired within 24 hours of the time you're due to leave the UK. You can also get a hire car if your own vehicle's been stolen, and you can't get it back in time to keep your booking.

- The extra cost of new ferry or train tickets.

If your vehicle breaks down but can be fixed within 24 hours of the time you were due to leave, Green Flag will help with the cost of re-booking your ferry or channel tunnel train tickets. If the original route's not available, you can use the nearest alternative instead.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Any claim to do with a breakdown if you opened your Club M Account or turned your insurance benefits back on less than seven days before you were due to start your trip.
- ✗ Any claim where the likelihood of a breakdown was pointed out to you during a service, seven days or less before you were due to start your trip.
- ✗ Car hire if your vehicle needs routine servicing, or is having cosmetic repair work done, or any other kind of repairs that wouldn't stop you from being able to drive it.

Remember

You need to get Green Flag's approval before you book a hire car, if you think you might want to claim any costs. Get in touch with them as soon as you hear that your own vehicle might not be ready in time.

When you claim, you'll also need to send Green Flag a letter from your garage. It needs to give exact details of the breakdown or damage.

And it also needs to confirm:

- that your vehicle's been regularly serviced and maintained;
- that the breakdown happened suddenly, and couldn't have been expected;
- that it won't be possible to repair your vehicle before you're due to leave for your trip.

Roadside Help

What's covered

Green Flag will arrange for a local recovery firm to come out to your vehicle and try to repair it. Or Green Flag will arrange for you, your vehicle and any passengers to be taken to the nearest repair centre. The most Green Flag will pay in total towards these things is £250.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Charges for any work done away from the roadside.
- ✗ The cost of replacement parts or materials.

Remember

If the local mechanic can't repair your vehicle at the roadside, and it needs to be taken to a garage, you'll be responsible for any costs from that point. The garage will be acting for you.

Replacement Parts

What's covered

If you can't get the parts you need to repair your vehicle locally during your trip, ask Green Flag, and they'll try to find them somewhere else. They won't pay for the parts, but they will pay to have them sent to the garage that's fixing your vehicle.

What isn't covered

- ✗ The cost of the parts.
- ✗ Customs duty. (You'll have to pay that, with a debit card, credit card, or by bank transfer.)
- ✗ The cost of sending any parts you don't need back to a supplier.

Remember

Green Flag will do their best to find any parts you need, but they can't guarantee they'll be available – especially for older vehicles. If you order something then decide you don't need it, or don't wait for it to arrive, you'll be responsible for the costs. That includes the cost of forwarding it or sending it back.

Break In

What's covered

If you're on a trip and someone tries to steal your vehicle, or anything from it, Green Flag will pay up to £175 towards emergency repairs to make sure that it's still safe to drive.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Cosmetic or paintwork damage.
- ✗ Costs you incurred after you got home.
- ✗ Anything that was inside your vehicle.

Remember

If your vehicle's broken into, remember to report it to the police.

Can't use your vehicle

What's covered

If your vehicle breaks down during your trip and it can't be repaired within 24 hours, Green Flag will arrange and pay for one of these things:

- taking you, your passengers and luggage to wherever you were trying to get to by another form of transport;
- a hire car, if there's one available, while your vehicle's out of action – up to a value of £850;
- putting you and your passengers up in a local hotel while you wait for the repairs to be done. There's a limit of £45 per person per day, or £500 altogether, on the hotel costs that Green Flag will pay, as long as those costs are over and above anything you were already expecting to pay. Breakfast can be included, but alcohol can't.

What isn't covered

- ✗ The cost of transporting furniture, camping equipment or winter sports gear. Green Flag might be able to help, but you'll need to pay extra.
- ✗ Fuel, oil or insurance for hire cars.

Camping Trips

What's covered

If you're on a camping trip and will be sleeping in your own tent, and that tent can't be used because it gets damaged or stolen, Green Flag will arrange and pay for either:

- hiring another one, where possible, for the rest of your trip; or
- bed and breakfast for you and your passengers, up to £45 per person per day or a total of £500.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Tents that belong to holiday companies or tour operators.

- ✗ Expenses where your tent wasn't too damaged to be used.
- ✗ The cost of any alcoholic drinks.
- ✗ Damage caused by dogs you've brought with you.

Emergency Driver

What's covered

If you have to leave your trip early because of something Green Flag agree is a serious reason, or if during your trip you're declared medically unfit to drive and none of your passengers can drive your vehicle for you, Green Flag will pay the extra costs involved in bringing your vehicle back. You'll need to give them any travel tickets you've already got that they might be able to use to help retrieve your vehicle. Green Flag might send out a professional driver.

Bringing you back home

What's covered

If your vehicle's stolen while you're on a trip and you don't get it back in a safe condition to drive, or if it breaks down and can't be repaired in time for your journey back, Green Flag will pay to bring you, your passengers and your vehicle home to the UK using their choice of transport.

Green Flag will pay for any garage storage that's needed up to £100. And they'll pay for any extra transportation or shipping. Or, if you agree it with them in advance, Green Flag will pay up to £600 for one person to come out to your vehicle by public transport, to drive it back to the UK once it's been repaired abroad.

After Green Flag have brought you back, if they're also returning your vehicle, they will pay for up to seven days' travel costs for journeys you or your passengers have to make while you're waiting for your vehicle. Up to a total of £75.

You won't be able to claim any travel costs after seven days, or from the day your vehicle arrives back home or at your repairer's, whichever comes first.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Anything you leave inside your vehicle.
- ✗ Extra costs involved in bringing home pets.
- ✗ The cost of bringing back furniture, camping equipment or winter sports gear.
- ✗ Your vehicle itself, while it's being brought back – unless any loss or damage is caused by Green Flag.
- ✗ Fuel costs.

Remember

The most Green Flag will pay towards bringing back a vehicle is its U.K. market value. Even then, they will only bring the vehicle back if it's definitely possible to repair it, and you've told them that you will. You'll need to give Green Flag any travel tickets you've already got that they might be able to use to help get you and your vehicle back home.

You'll have to send them receipts for any travel costs that you want to claim back, along with their claim form.

Customs costs

What's covered

If your vehicle breaks down on a trip outside the UK, and it isn't worth the cost of repairing, Green Flag may decide to dispose of it where it is.

If they do, they will make all the arrangements and pay for the cost of storage up to £100 if there's a delay. Green Flag will also cover any customs duty you're asked to pay because your breakdown abroad means your vehicle's there for longer than it's meant to be under short-term importation rules.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Any import charges apart from the ones mentioned above.

Missed Train Connections

What's covered

Green Flag will cover you if you're booked to take your vehicle out of the UK by train at the start of your trip, but you miss that train because your vehicle breaks down on the way there.

Green Flag will also cover you if you're late to that station because the public transport you were relying on can't get you to it in time. That's as long as the delay's due to bad weather, industrial action, or your vehicle breaking down.

If there's a secure car park near the train depot, Green Flag will arrange and pay to keep your broken-down vehicle there while you're away on your trip.

Green Flag will also arrange and pay for a standard class return train ticket, so you can still make your trip.

And they will arrange and pay for a hire car abroad if there's one available, up to a maximum of £450.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Industrial action that was already expected when you booked your trip.
- ✗ Boats, planes or trains being taken out of action by a recognised, regulated authority.

Remember

You've got to have done everything reasonably possible to get to your departure point on time.

Personal Cover

What's covered

In addition to the cover mentioned in Breakdown cover in the UK, you (and the joint account holder where applicable) will have the same cover that you've got in your own vehicle when you are in any other vehicle in the UK.

What isn't covered

- ✗ Journeys in vehicles that are bigger or heavier than the limits detailed under the definition of vehicle.
- ✗ Any cover if you are in any other vehicle outside of the UK.

Remember

If you call Green Flag out to help when you are in somebody else's vehicle, Green Flag might ask for proof of ID.

Fair Use Policy

Under Personal Cover, Green Flag will provide cover for up to eight call outs in any 12-month period of cover. If you need help more times than this, you'll have to pay for it. Green Flag will ask you for your payment details before they agree to come out to you.

About Hire Cars

Remember

If you have to pay for a hire car locally, Green Flag will only reimburse you if you've checked that they are happy to first, before you make the booking. It's up to you to collect the hire car. Green Flag won't be able to guarantee it'll have a roof rack or tow bar.

Green Flag won't pay for fuel, oil or insurance for the hire car.

And they won't pay for a hire car if your vehicle is just in for a routine service, or to have repair work done that wouldn't stop you from being able to drive it. If you hire a car in Europe, you're not allowed to take it out of the country you hired it in. You'll also have to meet the terms and conditions of the hire car company.

Misfuelling

What's covered

Green Flag will provide cover for you, your passengers and your vehicle to be recovered to the nearest repair centre to where the misfuelling happened.

What isn't covered

- ✗ The cost of draining and disposing of the contaminated fuel. Any damage to your vehicle if you've put the wrong fuel in and it's damaged the engine. Just so you know, you may be able to claim for that on your motor insurance.
- ✗ Any of the above costs if you use the wrong fuel outside the UK.

Important info

Statement of Demands and Needs

Green Flag haven't given you a personal recommendation for this policy and whether it's suitable for your specific needs.

Stopping Fraud

Green Flag are out to stop fraud. If you or anyone you know tries to make a false or exaggerated claim, Green Flag might stop your service.

You might also have to repay Green Flag for any of their costs, including ones to do with investigating false claims. If you've got any other Green Flag or U K Insurance Limited products, Green Flag might cancel those too. And Green Flag could share details with other organisations or authorities to stop fraud in the future, or to start criminal proceedings.

What about animals?

If you break down and there are animals with you, you'll have to arrange transport for them (or they can stay in your vehicle at your own risk).

Assistance dogs will be transported with their owner unless it's not possible for health or safety reasons.

If Green Flag decide that they can transport an animal, they can't be held liable for anything that happens to them.

Green Flag won't transport horses or livestock.

Once the repairs are done

It's up to you to collect your vehicle once it's been repaired.

What you've got to do

For the cover to apply, you've got to make sure your vehicle's fit to drive when your policy begins and at the start of each journey. You've also got to make sure your vehicle's properly looked after, in line with the manufacturer guidelines. If the repair that's been carried out by us is temporary, then you will need to get it permanently repaired as soon as possible. You also need to take all reasonable steps to stop your vehicle from breaking down or being damaged or stolen.

You must also ensure it meets any legal requirements and driving laws that apply including having valid tax, insurance and MOT. Green Flag can check these details when you ask for help.

You must always give Green Flag the right information. If any of the details you give Green Flag about you, your circumstances or vehicle are not correct, Green Flag may charge you for any breakdown they come out to. You agree that Green Flag can carry out an inspection of your vehicle at any time.

Cancelling your policy

Your right to cancel

You have the right to cancel this policy at any time and this will take effect immediately. As the cover is provided as a benefit of being a Club M Account holder, a cooling off period doesn't apply and no refund is due.

If the connected Club M Account is cancelled or the insurance benefits are turned off, this policy will end.

If your vehicle is stolen

The first thing you should do is call the police. Phone Green Flag after that and they will do everything they can to help.

Problems with keys

If your vehicle keys are lost, broken or stolen, Green Flag will pay for someone to come out to your vehicle to try and get into it. Green Flag won't pay for repairing, replacing or re-programming keys. The same goes for any damage caused to your vehicle by attempts to get into it.

General Exclusions for this policy

There is no cover:

- for costs that Green Flag haven't agreed to pay. This includes any costs that you have agreed separately with the recovery agent for additional services that aren't covered by this policy.
- any breakdown caused by driver error unless it is specifically mentioned as covered in this policy.
- for costs or storage charges if you decide to have your vehicle taken to a repairer after it breaks down.
- for the cost of supplying a spare wheel and tyre if you can't give Green Flag one that will do.
- for labour charges at any garage your vehicle is taken to.
- for materials, oil or parts costs.
- for any contents of your vehicle that are lost or damaged, unless they're lost or damaged while Green Flag are looking after them (you need to take valuables with you).
- for costs or losses that aren't immediately to do with getting your vehicle back on the road. For example, you can't claim for lost earnings if your breakdown means you are late for work.
- for costs to do with accidents that would usually be covered by car insurance, either belonging to you or somebody else.
- for charges where the emergency services have insisted your vehicle is recovered straight away.
- if your vehicle doesn't meet the legal requirements and driving laws that apply – this includes having valid tax, insurance and a MOT. Or, if it is currently declared SORN (Statutory Off Road Notification). Green Flag will check these details when you ask them for help.
- if your vehicle is ever used to carry things or people for money. For example, as a courier service or taxi.

- for vehicles involved in motor racing, off-road driving, rallies, track days, duration or speed tests.
- if your vehicle's just been imported, bought at auction or still got trade plates on it.
- if your vehicle's being moved for commercial reasons (this includes buying a vehicle with the intention of selling, whether privately or through a business).
- if you haven't fixed a fault that Green Flag have already been called out for in the last 28 days. For example, a non-start due to a faulty battery.
- if you cancel a callout and then ask Green Flag for help again with the same problem.
- if you have given Green Flag the wrong information about your vehicle – for example, you've told them you have a spare and serviceable wheel when you don't.
- if your vehicle breaks down in either a place Green Flag can't get to or off a public highway that Green Flag or you have no legal access to.
- if your vehicle's going to be dangerous or illegal to load or transport.
- if you or anyone in your group is threatening or abusive.
- for any expenses which you would have met in the normal course of the journey.

General Conditions applying to this policy

- This policy can't be used for routine servicing, the fixing of failed repairs or as a way of avoiding repair costs.
- Green Flag won't be liable for any delay or failure in performance of their obligations under this agreement if that delay or failure is due to any cause outside of Green Flag's reasonable control.
- Green Flag are not liable for any incident if:
 - (i) you continue to drive the vehicle after they've told you about additional faults found at the time of the breakdown; and/or
 - (ii) they've advised you not to drive the vehicle because;
 further damage may be caused by doing so; or the vehicle is dangerous or illegal to drive.

If you have not fixed an additional issue that they found and told you about during a previous call out, you're not covered for any breakdown that happens as a result.

- Green Flag are allowed to take over your rights in the defence or settlement of a claim or take proceedings in your name for their own benefit against another party. Just so you know, they shall have full discretion on these matters. You must give Green Flag all the information and help they need.
- If you are covered by any other insurance for a breakdown, Green Flag will only pay their share of the claim. You may be asked to give Green Flag details of the other insurance company for this reason.
- You'll have to pay the cost of Green Flag recovery or repair truck coming out to you if you get the vehicle recovered or repaired by someone else after you have contacted Green Flag for help.
- If Green Flag do anything for you that isn't covered by your policy, they can charge you for that. If Green Flag do, you'll need to pay them within a month of them asking.
- If you use a repair garage for anything, they'll be your agent and act on your behalf. Green Flag are not responsible for anything they do, or any problems they cause. Green Flag can't give any kind of warranty for the work done by a repairer in a garage, or any kind of promise that they'll fix your vehicle quickly. You'll have to tell them what you'd like them to do and pay for any repairs.
- Any failure by Green Flag in relying on or enforcing these Terms and Conditions at any time will not prevent any subsequent reliance or enforcement.
- If it takes specialist equipment to recover your vehicle, like cranes, winches or skates, Green Flag will pay for the cost of using that (unless it's needed after an accident that could be covered by a motor insurance claim).
- If any of the emergency services come out to your breakdown, Green Flag won't be able to do anything with your vehicle until they say Green Flag can.

1. Mobile phone and gadget policy wording

In this wording you will find everything you need to know about your Club M Account mobile phone and gadget insurance. Please read this carefully to make sure this policy is right for you. If you have any questions, then call 0345 602 2369. This policy makes up an agreement between you and the insurer, Assurant General Insurance Limited. The insurer has appointed Lifestyle Services Group Limited to administer the policy. Lifestyle Services Group is part of the Assurant group of companies.

The word Device will be used within this section and means both Mobile Phone and Gadget.

2. Registering your Devices

You don't have to register your device, but if you do it will be easier to make a claim if something goes wrong. This can be done by calling 0345 602 2369 or clubmclaims.assurant.co.uk.

You will need the following information when registering:

Mobile Phones:	Gadgets:
Make	Make
Model	Model
IMEI Number	Serial number
Telephone Number	Date bought & Price

Assurant 'we/us/our' will need to check that the device belongs to you or a family member. You might need to give some proof of ownership that confirms the make, model, IMEI/Serial number and in some cases the device's memory size. This might be documents from your network provider, like the original documents for your contract, or a document showing the device is being used with that network. You could also give a receipt from when you bought the device. For gadgets, we will need a document that also shows the date you bought it. If you don't have any proof of ownership Assurant may reject your claim.

3. Who is this policy designed for?

This policy will cover you or a family member if your device is lost, stolen, accidentally damaged or breaks down, including if it's faulty. We'll cover the cost of fixing the device or replacing it if the device isn't already covered by another insurance policy. When we say 'family member' we mean your partner or spouse, or any other relative who lives at the same address as you. You need to pay an excess for every accepted claim, details are in the "What you are NOT covered for" section of this document. You should consider this excess if you have a basic device to judge whether this policy meets your needs.

Your claim might be rejected if you take risks with your device which you wouldn't normally take if it wasn't insured.

Further details can be found in the section 'What is not covered'.

We understand circumstances can be quite different when something happens that might lead to a claim. We'll take this into consideration when we review your claim.
